MIRIAM Whiny LARPER

"Guys? You seen my sword? The real one?"

Pretending to be a medieval warrior princess used to sound appealing, now it's mundane. Except the 'princess' part. Would still appreciate some support on that.

PERSONAL GOAL
Heroism isn't bullshit. It isn't! If we just rescue a kid or something, it will bring us all some hope.

“I”

Pharmacology would've been so much more useful than particle physics right about now. But, if you have to be the world's saviour and guide this resistance movement, so be it.

PERSONAL GOAL

The mutants are the key. If I could just get hold of a Stalker or Banshee and run some tests...

“Least the worst’s already happened, eh?”

Zombies, whatever. Society got its due because people are arseholes, that’s just fact. So better make damn sure that people who aren’t arseholes survive this.

GAZ Honourable Punk

PERSONAL GOAL

Fuck the government.
They’ve got bunkers that are bound to be zombie proof. So let’s give the zombies a hand.

plucky housewife

"Oh, don't you be such a baby!"

The sensible thing in these situations is always to be sensible. Heroics might've saved your life, but that's no use if everyone else dies, now is it?

PERSONAL GOAL

My house isn't really a safe house, I know, but it would be so nice just to act normal for a while and visit there with my new friends.

When you're smart, athletic, rich and majorly self-righteous, how can you not survive? Time to forget your shitty high-paid job and take on a real challenge.
You're ready for it.

"You think I can't do that? Really?"

since I got laid. Need to restart humanity with someone worthy though.

"That's how Mick gets things done!"

You were never an officer, but you have to keep these clowns in line if you're gonna keep them alive, cos no other idiot can fucking do it. And a little fucking respect wouldn't hurt either.
